

Hermelin biliardi
We play together since 1825

Made in Italy

We work to make you play.

Hermelin’s origins date back to 1825, the year in which the businessman Rinaldo Hermelin, from Milan, opens his little one craft pool table shop in the heart of the city. It collects immediately a remarkable success among fans of this noble sport. Over the years, the brand has continued to grow, spreading more and more in the most exclusive environments of Milan. The development and continuous evolution, led Hermelin to look out on international markets, establishing itself as an icon of the Made in Italy manufacturing art.

Today, after two centuries since its foundation, the small shop has become an international reality, with a team of master cabinetmakers who dedicate themselves with the same passion, attention and care of 200 years ago. Our artisans are joined by avant-garde designers, that collaborate in synergy to give life to pieces always unique and exclusive, to satisfy the needs of customers all around the world. Growth, originality and dedication have always been at the heart of the philosophy of Hermelin, values that over the centuries passed down from generation in generation. Today the combination of craftsmanship and artistic avant-garde have become our peculiarity which allows people who loves the Made in Italy and the excellent design to still choose us after 200 years.

EXPO

Collaboration between Hillside Out and Hermelin biliardi

Born from a collaboration with Hillsideout.

A table with a refined design, where the aesthetic originality meets the multifunctionality.

Designed to be used in three different ways:
the classic pool table turns into a cocktails table simply by putting the top on it, which can also becomes a boiserie or an artistic séparé.
The Expo can also be accompanied by support for sticks, thought to turn into a tea table.

The finishes are refined and studied with attention to the smallest details, so as to ensure the quality and prestige that distinguish Hermelin products.

C6

Design by Giovanni Luca Ferreri

Hermelin design is constantly evolving, the brand's artisanal history blends with the continuous experimentation.

The choice to follow and sometimes anticipate new trends, is the natural propensity to offer unique pieces to a demanding clientele who loves to experiment. Following this philosophy, it was born our carbon fiber C6, lightweight and at the same time resistant, a piece of furniture elegant, original, combining technological innovation and creativity.

The natural propensity of Hermelin to satisfy the wishes of the customer, has led to the revisiting of this model in the lacquered version, giving a refined touch to a piece with an unseen design.

ODESSA

Classic

Almost two centuries of history have allowed us to collect a considerable number of pool tables throughout history, some have been revisited in a contemporary key, many have remained in the memories of our master cabinetmakers, but other still have been handed down over time, maintaining their original style.

This is the case of our historical Odessa, a precious table, characterized by important legs in cast bronze, or brass, combined with particular and accurate finishes in detail.

The Odessa model is characterized by important legs and strings made of cast brass or bronze, combined with precious handmade inlays by the famous technique of the 'Boulle'.
A jewel of aesthetic precision that unleashes all the charm that only an imposing and rich table of details can have.
