

The Danube billiard table combines a classic style with a fascinating reminder of past eras. This same fascination is reflected in our Danube, one of the tables that has written the history of Hermelin.

Crafted in Decape Oak, the billiard table highlights the striking wood grain, serving as an elegant frame for the soft coloured carpet. The choice of Decape Oak contributes to the table's distinctive and refined appearance, highlighting its handcrafted quality.

The Danube presents itself as an elegant fusion of past and present, embodying the Hermelin tradition in a contemporary and refined manner.
