

The Odessa billiard table embodies the symbol of our illustrious craft tradition, representing a significant chapter in our billiard history.

With almost two centuries of experience, we have accumulated a vast repertoire of billiards, some of which have been reinterpreted in a contemporary key, while others have become an integral part of our master cabinetmakers' memories. The Odessa billiard table, however, has stood the test of time while keeping its original style intact.

This precious billiard table is characterised by imposing legs made of cast bronze or brass, combined with meticulous finishes. Its regal design and special finishes make it a unique piece, capable of capturing attention with its timeless elegance.

The Odessa is more than just a billiard table; it is a living testimony to the craftsmanship that characterises our history. Its ability to surprise remains constant over time, giving each game a dimension of authentic grandeur.
