ARIA

Design by Giovanni Luca Ferreri

A pool table that stands out for its elegance and practicality.

Crafted with meticulously rounded shapes and volumes, it exudes a sense of coziness and elegance, making it a versatile and timeless addition to any space.

One of the standout features of the Aria pool table is its adaptability. With the option to easily transform it into a dining table, it offers both practicality and style. By adding a Canaletto walnut top, which can conveniently be divided into 2, 3, or 4 pieces based on the table's size, the game surface easily turns into a dining area, effortlessly accommodating various needs and occasions.

The Aria pool table is available in a stunning version with sides crafted from solid Canaletto walnut, accentuated by legs enveloped in luxurious leather with contrasting stitching and adorned with satin brass details. This exquisite combination of materials and finishes elevates its aesthetic appeal, creating a statement piece that captures attention in any setting.

DABA

Restyling by Giovanni Luca Ferreri

The simplicity and elegance of a pool table completely covered in leather.

Our new Daba, a classic billiard redesigned by the architect Giovanni Luca Ferreri, perfectly combines brand's history, heritage and innovative techniques. It is the expression of heritage and the constant desire to innovate. Straight lines and simple design, together with fine leather finishes, characterize this original and timeless pool table: suitable for both modern and more traditional environments.

Thanks to the fine leather finishes - which completely envelops the structure - and its contrasting stitching, this pool table is charming and elegant. Leather became the absolute protagonist, a resistant and at the same time comfortable and soft material, it represents sobriety, luxury and refinement.

The accuracy and precision, which distinguish the craftsmanship, is especially noticeable in the fine leather refinement of the billiard ball baskets and in the champagne details.

CASABLANCA

Hermelin biliardi per Andrea Zambelli Design

An original and unique work of art, entirely handmade.

A pool table born from the collaboration between Hermelin Biliardi and Andrea Zambelli design. This extraordinary pool table suggests the concept of contemporary design and craftsmanship. It is made with two essences of wood: frisé maple and olive tree, together with etched brass sheets.

Characterized by a sculptural design, Casablanca billiard table stands out for the beauty of the white maple inlaid with olive trees inserts. Each side has been hand carved and alternates organic and geometric shapes to evoke and recreate desert dunes. The truncated pyramid-shaped legs are made of maple with addition of hand-etched brass plates, and therefore different from each other. These unique shapes give the table a contemporary and dreamlike aesthetic. The contrast between materials and shapes makes the Casablanca pool table not only a functional object, but a real art work.
